

Closing workshop:
Post-predicate elements across the languages of Western Asia: theoretical and empirical approaches

WORKSHOP PROGRAMME

Thursday 22 nd September
10:00-10:45	Welcome; WOVA: data overview, selected case studies, main findings	Geoffrey Haig, Nils Schiborr, Mahîr Can Dogan
10:45-11:15	Forty years after Frommer; post-predicate elements in Persian	Mohammed Rasekh-Mahand (Hamedan)
	Refreshments
11:45-12:15	Post-predicate elements in Early New Persian	Mehdi Parizadeh and Fariba Sabouri (Hamedan)
	Lunch
13:30-14:00	Khuzestani Arabic	Bettina Leitner (Vienna)
14:00-14:30	Post-predicate arguments in Eastern Neo-Aramaic and Anatolian Arabic	Paul Noorlander (Cambridge)
14:30-15:00	Is SV really the dominant pattern in Neo-Aramaic? Intransitive clauses and implications for word order alignment and discourse	Dorota Molin (Cambridge)
	Refreshments
15:30-16:00	Word order and post-predicate elements in Romeyka	Laurentia Schreiber (Bamberg / Ghent)
16:00-16:30	Post-predicate arguments in the Kurdish-Gorani continuum zone	Masoud Mohammadirad (Cambridge)
16:30-17:00	Balochi	Maryam Nourzai (Uppsala)
17:00-17:30	Discussion	All participants
19:00	Dinner	TBA
Friday 23 rd September
9:30-10:00	The prosody of postpredicate elements in Georgian, Armenian and Turkish	Stavros Skopeteas (Göttingen)
10:00-10:30	Post-predicate position in Kurmanji-Turkish bilinguals	Kateryna Iefremenko (Potsdam)
	Refreshments
11:00-11:30	A quantitative study of word order of non-subject constituents in languages of Western Asia	Alexandru Craevschi (Bamberg / Zürich)
11:30-12:00	Goals Last: Western Asian evidence for a potential word order universal	Geoffrey Haig and Nils Schiborr (Bamberg)
	Lunch
13:00-14:00	Discussion; volume contents and schedule	All participants

<https://www.uni-bamberg.de/aspra/forschung/projekte/post-predicate-elements-in-iranian/>

Where: Universität Bamberg, Institut für Orientalistik, SP17, Raum 00.13    When: Thursday 22-Friday 23 September 2022

With generous support of the Alexander von Humboldt-Stiftung

and the

Elite Network of Bavaria

